

Overview

1 NIGHT 2 DAYS SETI RIVER RAFTING TRIP

Seti River is a unique river passing through beautiful and breathtaking picturesque areas. Relatively small volume, blue water and also warm. We recommended this as a 'warm up' river for intermediate kayakers. The trip start from Damauli and ends in Ghai Ghat. It is an easy access for raft or kayak trip. The expedition can be combined with Chitwan Jungle Safari as it is a short distance from trip ending point to National Park.
