

Overview

Most of the traditional major trekking trail in Annapurna are now trodden with road building. Famous Ghorepani Trek will be soon accessed by road in next couple of years as the road structure to Ulleri from Nayapul has already shortened the trail that have been world famous classic hiking route since last three decades. We have been seeking and doing some potential new path research and found some of the best off the beaten hiking trail. Beside the Mardi Himal we propose virgin and very less traveled trail that is combined with Famous Ghorepani Trek with off the beaten Khopra Danda (Ridge) Trek and excursion to holy Khayer Lake and ending the journey at Australian Camp near Pokhara.
